DECLARATION OH COPENHAGEN

The WFCCN formulated the Declaration of Copenhagen at the March 2011 meeting in Copenhagen. The WFCCN Honorary Ambassador distinction recognized individuals, not eligible for Council membership, who are making outstanding contributions to critical care nursing and/or healthcare.

The nominee must show evidence of outstanding contributions to critical care nursing and/or healthcare at an international level, such as:

- Contribute leadership, knowledge and excellence in critical care nursing and/or healthcare.
- Successful implementation of creative approaches to clinical practice, education, research management and policy.
- Creative development, utilization, or evaluation of specific concepts in education, practice, or health services.
- Extraordinary leadership in nursing/health systems or nursing and/or healthcare service delivery.
- Authorship of books, papers or other material that have significant implications for critical care nursing and healthcare.
- Commitment to provide an annual written report of activities and contributions that meet the objectives of WFCCN.

The WFCC Council approved the nominations of Dr. Anne Alexandrov and Ms Kathleen Vollman as Honorary Ambassadors. They will received their recognitions at the 8th International Congress of WFCCN set for April 12-15 2012 in Sibenik, Croatia.
