

PRESS RELEASE

WFCCN welcomes our Honorary Ambassadors

WFCCN welcomes the re-appointment of Belle C. Rogado and Susan C. Yeager from 2018 to 2021.

Maria Isabelita “Belle” C. Rogado is a co-founder and past President and Secretary of the World Federation of Critical Care Nurses. Currently she serves as a Professor at the Arellano Graduate School of Nursing in the Philippines and manages the Advanced Clinical Laboratory for Skills and Health Care Solution, Inc., a duly accredited American Heart Association International Training Center and Continuing Professional Development provider by the Professional Regulatory Board of Nursing. She also serves as the current President of the Critical Care Nurses Association of the Philippines, Inc (CCNAPI).

Susan Yeager is the Lead Neurocritical Care Nurse Practitioner at The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center in Columbus, Ohio. She serves as adjunct faculty at The Ohio State University College of Nursing and Wright State University. She is a Fellow of the Neurocritical Care Society and serves on the Board of Directors for the Neurocritical Care Society and the World Federation of Critical Care Nurses.